This little jewel of a lesson jump starts you into playing solo's and "believe-you-me", we will snap your fingers right into shape without a bunch of mind numbing confusion.

You'll notice that there is a BLUE line next to some numbers.

This is to help you remember what strings that we "paired-up" to create that cool lick in the video. Play those two notes together.

Don't get hung up on reading this chart too much.

You always have access to the video. This is just for quick reference.

Polish up on this because the next four lessons will have you doing some pretty amazing things using this simple scale ...and you won't just sound like you're going thru a scale. NO-WAY!
